

Morning Worship
29th Sunday of the Year

10:30 A.M. October 18, 2009

Prelude (Titles of our organ Prelude, Offertory, & Postlude are posted on the bulletin board in the foyer this morning.)

Hymns this morning are from the yellow booklet

Greetings and Announcements
Call to Worship Jan Rolecki
Introit (224) "Bless the Lord" Psalm 104

Invocation (Unison)
Power above all powers, source and goal of our highest aims, we call upon You today. We are Your people. Call forth from us heartfelt worship, unselfconscious praise, profound prayer, and devoted attention. We pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

*Hymn "Sweet Hour of Prayer" 16

Service of Confession

Silent Prayers
Prayer of Confession (Unison)
We confess, Our God, that we have not lived up to the new person You have made us in Christ Jesus Our Lord. We have not remembered always to love. We have been more afraid of being wronged than afraid to wrong another. We have not been as much in prayer as our life of faith requires. For all these things, and whatever on our conscience accuses us, forgive and renew us, we pray, In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Assurance of Pardon
The Lord's Prayer (Debts)
Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Choral Response

Responsive Reading Hebrews 5: 1-10

For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men and women in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.

He can deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is beset with weakness.

Because of this he is bound to offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people.

And one does not take the honor upon himself, but he is called by God, just as Aaron was.

So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him, "Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee";

as he says also in another place, "Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchizedek."

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard for his godly fear.

Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered;

and being made perfect he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.
